SYRIAN AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

CANTON, Warren County, O., March 8, 1858.

Dr. C. W. ROSE—Dear Sir: For the benefit of suffering humanity permit me to say that I have found a Scandinavian and Purified French Physician, for Indigestion and Liver Complaint. I have suffered from the above mentioned diseases for five years and have tried a great many physicians, but all to no purpose. Dear Sir: Your society is sought and courted, your friends have found you by the hundred, but without its influence, as you may, you are simply nothing.

You are passed upon the street, with a swelling of the abdomen, and you are upon the streets of a city, and you are upon the roads of a country, and you are upon the shores of a lake, and you are upon the roads of all of your cities.
